

19 20th February 1990 page # 25 Five years, later 25 Drums, filled with concrete & stainless steel bolts are laid at the entrance to Gordons Bay. Four drums mysteriously dumped by unknown persons in the Bay and subsequently recovered by Hayden Poole & John Rowe

Page 25: The uneven terrain made it next to impossible to manually move the drums into Gordons Bay.

